

CIS 454: Software Implementation, Spring 22

In Class Exercise: 11th April

*Note: This document needs to be submitted on blackboard in “.pdf” format

SUID: 646315859	Name: Kevin Lopez

Summarize, in your own words, the software engineering practices used at SRC.

SRC uses engineering practices much like the older days of engineering. They continuously update stakeholders in the development of projects and continuously apply a learning model to their work. They mainly work for government contractors and are used to a hybrid agile method approach.